

Costa Meditteranea

This morning for the first time in Port of Kotor has arrived Costa Meditteranea. She is operated by Italian Costa Crociere Cruise Line was built in Helsinki at a cost of over € 400 million. Like her sister ship Costa Atlantica their design was derived from Carnival Cruise Lines spirit class ships Carnival Spirit, Carnival Pride, Carnival Legend and Carnival Miracle.

Public rooms aboard this ship were inspired by Italian 16th and 17th century pallazi and to express the ship's motto which is "You've never seen anything like it". Twelve decks are named by mythological and historical characters and their names are: Circe, Tersicore, Bacco, Teseo, Orfeo, Narciso, Prometeo, Pegaso, Armonia, Cleopatra, Pandora and Medea.

Features on this ship include four swimming pools, four jacuzzis on open air, beauty salon and spa, gym, sports court, three restaurants, fourteen bars and lounges, theatre, casino, discoteque and many other. BRT of Costa Meditteranes is 85619, she is 292.6 meters long and sails under Italian flag. Onboard are 1554 passengers and 827 crew members.
